June in Tenerife, two-thousand twenty-six.

A month of contrasts — ancient tradition meets cutting-edge festivals. The streets of La Orotava become living canvases for the Corpus Christi flower carpets. Ports and stages from Santa Cruz to the south fill with festivals. And come midsummer's eve, the beaches light up island-wide as bonfires are leapt over in celebration of Noche de San Juan.

THURSDAY

Corpus Christi Carpet Day – Día de las Alfombras

- PLAZA DEL AYUNTAMIENTO · LA OROTAVA · NORTH

The highlight of the Corpus Christi season. Since 1846, the streets and town square of La Orotava have been blanketed in extraordinary carpets of flowers, coloured volcanic sand, and other natural materials depicting religious scenes. The main display uses volcanic sands from Teide — a breathtaking mosaic tradition declared of National Tourist Interest.

Best visited early morning before crowds arrive.

Corpus Christi Festival, La Orotava

- HISTORIC CENTRE · LA OROTAVA · NORTH

The wider Corpus Christi celebrations extend across two weeks, with the sand and flower carpet as the centrepiece. The procession follows a route through the decorated streets, and the entire historic centre transforms into an open-air gallery. One of the most visually spectacular free events in the Canarian calendar.

WEDNoche de San Juan — Midsummer Night

• BEACHES ISLAND-WIDE · TENERIFE

One of the most magical free events of the Canarian summer. As midnight approaches on June 23rd, beaches fill with locals and visitors, bonfires are lit on the sand, and the tradition of jumping over the flames — symbolising purification and good luck — is taken seriously by everyone.

Popular spots: Playa de Las Teresitas (Santa Cruz), Playa de Los Cristianos (South), Playa del Médano (East). Bring something to burn — a wish on a piece of paper is customary.
