

THE SEPTEMBER EDITION · 34 EVENTS · 9 CATEGORIES

September in Tenerife, two-thousand twenty-six.

The island shifts out of beach-holiday mode and into festival season. La Laguna gives over nine days to the Fiestas del Cristo, the Canarian year's most important patron saint celebration; the north hosts three international music festivals in as many weekends; half a dozen villages hold their romerías; and the Sinfónica opens its season with Mahler's Second. Village fiesta timings shift close to the date — check with the local ayuntamiento before you plan around one.

Corrections & clarifications

GASTROCANARIAS	The island's biggest gastronomic trade fair took place in May 2026 . It does not fall in September, despite some listings suggesting otherwise.
COOK MUSIC FEST	Chayanne, Don Omar and Olga Tañón played Tenerife in July 2026 , not September.
TENERIFE BLUETRAIL	Normally a September fixture. The planned March 2026 edition was cancelled due to Storm Therese and the race has been pushed to 2027 .

Notes

This month's list is deliberately shorter than usual — 34 confirmed or well-sourced events rather than a padded spread. September's calendar is dominated by the Fiestas del Cristo and a cluster of village romerías. Ayuntamiento websites tend to publish the smaller fiesta programmes only two to three weeks out, so anything marked TBC is worth a second check nearer the date.
